Students	Yes
Teachers	Yes
Employers	Yes
Alumni	Yes
Parents	Yes

1.4.2 – How the feedback obtained is being analyzed and utilized for overall development of the institution?
(maximum 500 words)

Feedback Obtained

Metric No. 1.4.2. Response: The IQAC collects feedback through structured questionnaires on the curriculum once a year from the stakeholders. The IQAC analyzes the collected feedback class-wise and prepares lists of suggestions, recommendations, and student problems. The IQAC has taken the proper action in discussion with the principal. The action taken report was discussed with the students and uploaded on the college website for their information. 1249 UG and 58 PG students have enrolled, out of which 1000 UG and 50 PG students submitted their feedback. Approximately 80.33 of students were involved in the feedback process, and the college received several student suggestions. The suggestions are: 1. To increase new books as per curricula in the library. 2. To introduce new employability skills-orientated courses. 3. To involve students representatives on the internal committee. 4. To introduce ICT-enabled tools in the teaching pedagogy. The IQAC has prepared a plan to resolve the students suggestions and discussed it with the principal. In the meeting principal and IQAC unanimously decided to implement the students suggestion in the right spirit. The librarian has placed a purchase order for new books, and the commerce, Economics, and Marathi departments introduced new Add-on Courses which are exclusively job oriented. The teachers are informed about using ICT-enabled tools in classroom teaching, and necessary equipment is made available. The teachers use the old talk and chock method and new ICT-enabled pedagogy.

2.5.2 – Reforms initiated on Continuous Internal Evaluation(CIE) system at the institutional level (250 words)

Metric No. 2.5.2. Response: The college has an affiliated institute therefore, it is mandatory to follow the guidelines of the Affiliation University. The college follows the annual examination pattern for B. A. B. Com programs during 2017-18. It includes 20 weightage for internal evaluation and 80 weightage for yearly examination for all the classes. For 20 weightage, the Term End Examination was conducted at the end of the first term. The college performs the term-end examination on behalf of the University, and the term-end examination assessment results are sent to the University. The college follows the CBCS pattern for M. Com and M. A. programs, and weightage is 40 and 60 for each semester. The college strictly follows the continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) modalities prescribed by the Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU). The college has appointed the College Examination Officer (CEO), a senior faculty member who heads the college examination committee. The college conducts Term End Examinations and Continuous Internal Evaluation in the semester system as per the examination schedules prescribed and published by the college examination committee and the Director, Board of Examination and Evaluation of SPPU. The college communicates the examination schedule to the students and the teachers well in advance. Term End Examination is conducted at the end of the first term. The subject teachers assess the answer books in time, inform the students of their results, and communicate with the University. The teacher monitors the students progression toward achieving learning outcomes by using additional tools like open-book tests, oral exams, take-home tests, and general questions posed to the class, and instruction is modified as needed from time to time.

2.5.3 – Academic calendar prepared and adhered for conduct of Examination and other related matters (250 words)

Metric No. 2.5.3. Response: The college has constituted Examination Committee under the chairmanship of the Principal, and the senior teacher works as a college examination officer to ensure effective implementation of the examination process and works as a liaison between the university and college. The Examination Committee prepares an academic calendar before the commencement of the semester, and it covers the details of the activities, the tentative schedule of the CIE examination, End-semester practical and theory exams, a review of the performance of CIE, programs of the seminar, project work, and various activities. The teachers set the question papers as per the guidelines, and answer books are evaluated within the time limit. Assessed answer papers are shown to the students, and model answers are discussed with the students.

The subject teacher immediately rectifies questions regarding the assessment, allot marks for each answer, and total marks given. The students performance is also informed to their parents, and the low performers are encouraged to perform well in the subsequent tests. Practical Journals and Project Reports are assessed regularly, and marks are allotted per the guidelines laid done by the university. The Principal verifies the internal marks for all the students and informs to examination committee to display Continuous internal evaluation (CIE) patterns on the notice board before uploading them to the University portal

7.2 – Best Practices

7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

Best Practice No. I a. Title of the Practice: Introduction of Mentor-mentee System. b. The objective of the Practice: To make good connections, the students. To monitor and guide the students. To understand and resolve students grievances To motivate and enhance the students capability c. Need Addressed and the Context: The college admits students from the lower level of society who are financially weak and need a part-time job while studying. The students doing part-time jobs have faced several problems in their academic careers, and therefore they need help from their teachers. The mentor-mentee system fulfils the need of the students. The students undergo various problems of stress and depression. The data collected during the admission process reveals an increasing number of dropouts and unemployment. Each class admitted students strengths in 120 classrooms, which makes it impossible to give personal attention and guidance to the students in class. The mentor-mentee system is one solution to eradicate these barriers. A mentor can form bonding with the students in the true sense. The Mentor-mentee system helps achieve emotional stability and promotes thinking and decision-making for overall progress. d. The Practice: The Practice is that of creating an efficient mentor-mentee system. Each teacher is assigned 40-45 students. They meet at least once a week to discuss, clarify, and primarily share various problems, which may be personal, domestic, academic, etc. The teachers have all the necessary information about their mentees on file, and the faculty members involve local guardians and parents. e. Evidence of Success: Evidence of the Practices success includes better results in the examinations, more regular attendance, increased participation in co-curricular activities, better discipline on campus, and a respectful relationship between teachers and students. It is needless to say that a mentor gets job satisfaction. f. Resources: The Practice requires well-committed teaching staff who desire to help students beyond teaching hours. g. Problem Encountered and Resources Required: The college offers higher education in the citys central part and requires a mentor-mentee system. Every year got good results from the Practice. Most students complete their higher education with distinction and first class and join for further education in the college for post-graduate programs. h. Notes (optional) Nil

Best Practices II a. Title of the Practice: Organization of Remedial Coaching. b. The objective of the Practice: To help students to cope with the prescribed curriculum To arrange extra classes on complex topics. To identify slow and advanced learners. Motivate slow and advanced learners to participate in the group discussion as per their topic. To boost the morale of the slow and advanced learners. Arrange counseling sessions to eradicate the superiority complex and shyness of slow and advanced learners. c. Need Addressed and the Context: Remedial Coaching to acquire the demands of coursework skills to speak, present, and write correctly and confidently is an urgent need for many students from rural areas. d. The Practice: The students are streamed according to abilities through a diagnostic test soon after admission. The faculty members who teach methods and complex subjects offer remedial Coaching throughout the academic session. e. Evidence of Success: The students can cope with the course. f. Resources: The Practice requires well-committed teaching staff who desire to help students beyond teaching hours. g. Problem Encountered and Resources Required: Remedial Coaching is essential for slow learners. Every year got good results from the Practice. Most students complete their higher education in B. Com. and B.A. M. Com. M. A., programs with distinction and first-class. h. Notes (optional) Nil
